

Description: This 1957 home was completely renovated in 2017. New paint, new plumbing, new roof, new AC, new everything! Spray foam insulation was added throughout the attic. A brand new driveway was added and carries you to the open carport. This charming home boasts many popular additions including several barn style sliding doors, granite countertops, custom cabinetry, a metal roof and custom built wood shutters. The country charm carries all the way from the wood columns on the front of the home to the immaculate kitchen and spacious rooms throughout. The open floor plan lends itself to better entertaining at those family gatherings. Invite your guests over without feeling secluded in the kitchen while trying to feed them. Carry the party outside to the perfect backyard that is equipped with a privacy fence. There is plenty of room for entertaining with several covered porches. The master suite is spacious and offers a walk-in tile shower,
