

Description: This 3 bedroom, 2 bath brick home has so many eye-catching features. From the exposed brick to the wood beams used throughout the home, this charming home offers much. This home was built in 1984, but the updates make it difficult to see the age of this home. As you enter the home you appreciate the wood stained, trimmed out columns in the foyer. All the fixtures in the home have been updated. There is new flooring including carpet in the bedrooms and luxury vinyl plank flooring in the formal dining room, kitchen, and foyer. The kitchen has been updated with all new countertops with a built-in oven and microwave. The smooth top stove is situated in the quaintest little arched niche in the wall. The exposed distressed brick brings a rustic industrial feel to the room. There is bar seating here and the kitchen has plenty of built-in pantry space to offer abundant storage solution. The living room is open to the foyer and has
