

Description: The full deck built from treks decking across the front, four french doors, and the great view from the loft offer plenty of opportunities to take in the beauty of this expansive property. The home sits on 10.01 acres. The 3-stall horse barn with featured tack room makes this property appealing to the equestrian. The cleared area could easily be fenced creating a perfect spot for those animals to romp. The metal roof is a bonus here and the home has 2 AC units with one of them being less than a year old. Moving inside you will find 25 ft ceilings with exposed beams. The open floor plan includes views from the kitchen to the dining and living area. The kitchen has tile flooring and brand new cabinets with an abundance of storage and countertop space. The living room has views of the outdoors with two sets of french doors. There is a fireplace here with gas logs and wood flooring offering a cozy room for family gatherings. All the bedrooms have
